Kaceys Defeat Bridgeport In Keen Contest

The locals Research took their opening game at the Norwich Fair grounds on Sunday from the West Ends of Bridge-port by the close score of 1 to 0. The day was ideal and over two thousand fans threed out. The game was fast and senapty, both cames getting in some pretty baseball. The fattling was light, the first eight innings being a pitchers battle between Hughie Camanan and Liptuse, as each allowed but two hits. In the ninth Camanan was touched for three singles which meant the game if had not been for some snappy work by Eddie McKlay and Lavisme.

Eddie McKay played a sensational game in the field and his hit figured in the Kaccys' lone tally. In the minth inning McKay made a pretty running camen of Hammil's long fly to deep left center and again in the ninth cut off a run at the prate by a perfect throw from the garden. Hughie Canavan had a good day and pitched fine ball up to the ninth inning, atriking out eight men. Hughie fielded his position well and on the bases was a whitiwind.

The game started off with the first two Bridgeport men being retired on strikes.

was a whiriwind.

The game started off with the first two Bridgeport men being retired on strikes, while the third hit to Biagriff. The first three Kacey men were retired in the same manner. The only store of the game came in the fourth frame when with one out Liptac passed Canavan and westy Texas being the same hander. game came in the fourth frame when with one out Liptac passed Canavan and Mcklay sent Hughle to second with a presty Texas leaguer. When O'Connell tried to catch Eddie off first Hughle went to third on the play, scoring on Jack Clabby's fast grass cutter which Hammil was able to knock down but could not get Clabby at first.

Thirdesport had men on the bases in were features. Score:

mot get Claibly at first.

Bridgeport had men on the bases in the third and fourth innings, but Canavan caught one off first with a quick throw and the rest were left there. The ninth inning was one of suspense for the fans and in this inning Bridgeport had their only real chance of storing. Hammil, the first man up, hit a long fly to left center which McKay gathered in after a long run. Burke hit through second and went to second on Bowden's hit. O'Connell hit a short drive over second hase and McKay coming in an the run scooped up the ball and threw to Lavigns, cutting off Burke at the plate. Besiden went to third on the play and O'Connell to second. When Canavan wound up to pitch the first ball to Wilson Bowden started with his motion to son Bowden started with his motion steal home but Lavigne was waiting a today against the Philade his team, the Ginnts winning, 6 to 6.

Only one base on balls marred Barnes great performance, Williams being the recipient of the pass at the start of the fifth inning. He was doubled up when Fletcher hit into a doubled up when Fletcher hit into a double up when Fletcher hit into a double play. Only 27 men faced Barnes, as in Robertson's game of a week ago. Harnes' pitching was so effective that few of the chances offered the New York fielders were hard, though Bancroft and Rawlings cut off several hits by smart infield play. Only four
